McFarland should have snapped the ball to third yesterday in the eighth inning, and he would have caught Burns. Everybody supposed he would make a "bluff" at second to draw Burns off third, but he made a "rainbow" throw to Glenalvin, and what proved the winning run came in. One of those slow throws of his was mainly re-sponsible for Glenalvin's must in the fifth The Terre Haute cranks are well pleased with Charley Cushman's umpiring. From the way he has been fining players recently, and the excellent order he has maintained on the field, it would appear that he has come round all right and will prove a desirable member of the staff. His greatest fault in the first games he umpired was a lack of firmness in handling the Arlie Latham is still the comedian of the diamond. In one of the Cincinnati-Brooklyn games, Grim, the big Brooklyn catcher, hit a lively ball towards third. Latham yelled to Grim to "Run hard; you can beat it out!" and then calmly gathered in the ball as it came down by him and lined it over to Ewing in time to catch Grim, who was acting on "Lath's" advice to the best of his ability. George Treadway hit a ball over the center field fence in one of the Brooklyn-Cincinnati games which was probably the longest hit ever made on the Cincinnati grounds. It was the same Treadway who, years ago, when with Denver in the old Western League, hit a ball over the right field fence at Exposition Park. CINCINNATI, July 13 .- The attendance at the Oakly races to-day was the best of the meeting, excepting the fourth and the opening day. The grand stand was almost filled with ladies. Three top-heavy choices-Sallie Cliquot, Henry of Navarre and Sir Play-rather spoiled the interest in three events. Sallie Cliquot astonished everybody posted on racing by making the four and a half furlongs in 541/2 seconds, galloping. It beats the record for the local tracks. Ace fractured another local record, winning the Hotel stakes, seven furlongs, in 1:26%. The best race of the day in exciting interest was the hot finish of The Ironmaster, Merry Monarch and Toots.
